

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The National Association of Nurse Practitioners in Women's Health
13th Annual Conference
Palm Desert, California
October 13 – 16, 2010

Premier Women's Health Care Conference

The National Association of Nurse Practitioners in Women's Health (NPWH) invites submission of original abstracts for podium or poster presentation at its 13th annual conference. Abstracts of current research (completed or in progress) on issues affecting the health care of women are requested. Abstracts describing innovative clinical programs and industry abstracts (research or innovative clinical program) are welcomed and will be considered for poster presentation. Top scoring research abstract authors will be invited to present a brief podium presentation; other accepted research abstract authors will be invited to present a poster. Only original abstracts that have not previously been published or presented at national meetings will be considered.

Please identify the following information for your abstract: 1) research versus innovative clinical project 2) funding source 3) IRB approval, by whom and status.

Abstracts should be typed, single spaced, on a single page not to exceed 350 words. Abstracts should include title, three objectives, focus (research or innovative clinical program), purpose, methodology, results and implications for women's health. Send ONE copy with author's name and contact information and SEVEN copies without author identification. (If submitting via email attachment, send one file with author identification and one without.) Also enclose a cover page with the title and focus of the presentation, the author's name, mailing address, work phone number and e-mail address. Please include on the abstract page whether or not it is an Industry abstract. Innovative clinical programs and industry abstracts will only be considered for poster presentations.

Abstracts Must be Received by February 28, 2010
