What diversity do you believe you can bring to the EAB that would benefit the journal?

Diversity is a broad term encompassing demographic background, identities (innate and selected), collective strength of experiences/beliefs/values/skills/perspectives, and characteristics of the populations you serve. Please only share what you want, what you believe is relevant to benefiting the journal as an EAB member, and reserve the right to not disclose any aspects of diversity. This information will be kept confidential.*
