

NPWH is soliciting abstract submissions for posters from nurse practitioner/midwifery students for the 21st Annual Premier Women's Healthcare Conference being held October 10-13, 2018, in San Antonio, Texas. All students, including BSN/MSN students, may submit abstracts.

Please note the following items:

- 1) Students are required to obtain written approval of their faculty advisor or chair as part of the submission.
- 2) Students graduating in 2018 are eligible to submit.
- 3) If selected, the student will be required to register for the conference and will be responsible for their own travel expenses.
- 4) The word limit for abstracts is 350 words and should be submitted in the below outline format.

DNP Students

- Problem Statement
- Purpose/aims
- Background/significance
- Population/System
- Framework
- Project Design
- Evaluation Methods
- Analysis of Evaluation Data
- Results/Outcomes
- Conclusions

PhD/EdD/DNS Students

- Research Question
- Background/Significance
- Design/Method
- Sample
- Data Collection
- Data Analysis
- Results
- Conclusion

Master's/Post-Master's/Baccalaureate Students are eligible to submit on topics related to Women's Health Care. Abstracts should be formatted as outlined above.

The deadline for submission has been extended to July 31, 2018. Abstracts should be submitted to Carol Wiley at cwiley@npwh.org. You may contact Carol with questions or for more information.